

May 7, 2009

Knitters begin second class at GMI

A second knitting class has begun in the Sewing Center at God's Marketplace under the direction of instructor Laura Toburen and assistant instructor Tanya Fair.. At the conclusion of the class the students will have completed a knitted dishcloth and also a knitted neck scarf. The class meets for a couple of hours on Thursday evenings and additionally as needed. Knitting classes at God's Marketplace are part of a sewing curriculum that will eventually include crochet, beginning sewing, and beginning machine sewing classes. The next scheduled class is crocheting, which is planned for mid-June. Interested students are asked to call Laura Toburen at 706-678-7043. The class is free but a donation to God's Marketplace is suggested. Pictured above are (front, l-r) Tonya Callaway, Linda Aycock, Dacky Callaway, (back) Carol Cartledge, Teresa Saggus, Pat Henderson, Tanya Fair, Brooke Gaskin, Laura Toburen, and Clarice McLendon.

