Dave Toburen, director of God's Marketplace Inc. (left), told members of the Washington Rotary Club all about the various operations of the ministry at their regular club meeting on Thursday, April 16. He explained that the GMI umbrella covers several ministries including the Thrift Store which provides low cost "casually word clothes" for sale and thereby supports other ministries; the Food Pantry which serves about 120 families a month with 25-pound boxes of food; and the Sewing Center which provides items for sale made from recycled clothing as well as learning opportunities for those wishing to knit and sew. Buddy Lindsey (right), Rotary Club vice president and also co-manager of the Food Pantry, was program chairman for the day.
